Openings for Section Leaders (alto, tenor, bass) for St John's Parish Choir.

The renewed Parish Choir of St John's of Lattingtown, Locust Valley, has openings for three new section leaders. In addition to professional and voluntary singers, the St John's Parish Choir also draws talented singers from local Colleges through the Choral Scholarship Program (founded in 2017).

You will be joining a small but growing choir (physical space in Gallery or Chancel is limited to sixteen singers) which sings twice a month at the Sunday 10:30 am Choral Eucharist; involvement in a third Sunday morning service will be explored in the coming year. Additionally, Choral Evensong is sung monthly from mid-September to early June, and there are further additional services around Christmas and Holy Week. Rehearsals for the Parish Choir are held on Sundays before and after the 10:30 service and on Saturdays around once a month. Choral repertoire is drawn primarily from the Anglican tradition and preparation of music to a high standard beforehand is expected of all our singers. Compensation will be $150 per Sunday morning ($100 for service, $50 for rehearsal), with $100 for further appearances such as additional rehearsals and services.
