

The Dog gives me the eye

I needed to shave
Hot water and shaving gel
Face covered in foam
Then I became aware
Of being intently watched
My Golden Retriever
It seemed as if
He was seeing
He was wondering
Was I becoming
Someone else?
Not me?
Or was he thinking
What strange things
Human species does!
They have a skin
Then put on another 'skin'
On top, a disguise
A face mask
Relief thought the canine
It is him underneath
My walker, feeder
Friend and companion
May the real me
Always be visible
May I be proud of me!
Never hide me
Made in God's image
